Tennessee Primary Care Association honors community health leaders

NASHVILLE, Tenn. -- The Tennessee Primary Care Association recently recognized several community health care leaders with Awards of Excellence. The awards are named for early leaders in the statewide primary care movement and recognize outstanding individual and organizational contributions.

Congratulations to our 2019 award recipients:

- Caryl E. Carpenter Excellence in Community Support Award -- Dr. Suzanne Bailey of Cherokee Health Systems, for her support of Dayspring Health
- Logan Beasley Leadership Excellence Award -- Dorothy Bullard of Mercy Community Healthcare
- Charles E. Darling Organization of Excellence Award -- Mountain People's Health Councils
- Outstanding Practitioner of the Year Award -- Dr. Daniel Yoder of Dayspring Health

The Tennessee Primary Care Association improves access to primary health care through leadership, advocacy, and support as the voice of Community Health Centers. TPCA's membership is comprised of more than 30 non-profit primary care clinics operating nearly 200 satellite sites that provide high quality, comprehensive primary care to people across the state. Member health centers served more than 422,000 Tennesseans in 2018.
