

Title VI Nondiscrimination Statement

Title VI of the Civil Rights Act of 1964 prohibits discrimination on the basis of race, color, or national origin in programs and activities receiving Federal financial assistance. Specifically, Title VI provides that “no person in the United States shall, on the grounds of race, color, or national origin, be excluded from participation in, be denied the benefits of, or be subjected to discrimination under any program or activity receiving Federal financial assistance” (42 U.S.C. Section 2000d).

The Tennessee Primary Care Association is committed to ensuring that no person is excluded from participation in, or denied the benefits of its services.

Contact our office, if you feel you are being denied participation in services provided by the Tennessee Primary Care Association. Please contact:
